

TRANSCEND

KILUSAN BAUTISTA

A new one-man multimedia theater performance which examines personal identity, effects of gentrification, and perseverance in the face of adversity through theatrical storytelling, multimedia visual projections, Hip Hop and electronic music, and spoken word poetry

Co Sponsors: The Office of Equity, Euphrat Museum of Art, Black Leadership Collective, African American Studies, Intercultural/International Studies Division, VIDA

TUESDAY
OCT 25, 2016
1-2:30PM
CONF RM B

PERFORMANCE + Q & A

Come + attend this multifaceted show that resonates with every audience member that no book or lecture could replicate.

THURSDAY
OCT 27, 2016
♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦
9:30-11:30AM
CONF RM B

WORKSHOP

Faculty Workshop (9:30-11:30am): Instructors will learn how to integrate the use of art, hip hop, movement and personal narrative into the classroom practice.

♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦
1:30-3:30PM
CONF RM B

Student Workshop (1:30-3:3pm): Participate in an empowering educational workshop that builds community and honors your personal story through creative writing, theater activities and narrative storytelling.

For More Info: Adriana Garcia, Adm Asst | GarciaAdriana@fhda.edu | 408-864-5636

This event is ADA accessible.

Please contact us if you require special accommodations.