  8. How have you been meeting or how do you plan to meet the budget stipulation of requiring that all students benefiting from DASB funds allocated to you have paid the $10 DA Student Body Fee and are DASB Members (DASB Budget Stipulation # 1)? The Library requests that students use their DASB card to check out materials from our collections; patrons with community library cards are not allowed to access the Reserves collection.
  9. What would be the impact if DASB did not completely fund this request? ## Request For Information (RFI)

	Question / Inquiry	Program Response
1.	Please provide a thorough description of your program (250 words max)	The Course Reserves collection consists of textbooks and other materials required for De Anza College courses. Students who may not be able to afford textbooks or need to use textbooks on campus use and greatly appreciate this service. All materials are purchased through the Campus Bookstore, cataloged and processed through the Library, and will feature DASB's sponsorship of the materials prominently on each textbook (DASB stamp). Reserves Collection circulations account for 85% of Library circulations (statistics from last fiscal year).
2.	Please provide how many students are actively engaged in the program. Backing it up with data will help.	4625 unique IDs are associated with 43835 Reserves checkouts (data from last fiscal year).
3.	Why is your program important and what is the rationale behind having this program on campus? (250 words max)	Our program allows access to course materials crucial to understanding course content, especially to those who cannot afford the materials.
4.	How will your program expand students' perspectives and positively impact their lives and the community? (250 words max)	Our materials support success within courses which expand student perspectives and positively impact their lives and the community.
5.	How is your program working to improve itself every year? Do you receive student feedback? Implementing a student survey and sharing the results with DASB will be beneficial for our review process.	We often assess the usage statistics and adjust circulation rules so that we can allow the most usage possible per person while still meeting the collective demand. Most years we have also had surveys about our services which show high awareness of the Reserves (as well as acquainting more people with the Reserves as a side effect of the survey) and soliciting feedback so that we can improve.
6.	What are all of your sources of funding? Please include funding from the college, any sources of income, any grants, and any other source. If there are no other sources, has your program taken the initiative to search for other sources? (list ALL Account Numbers, Account Names, Account Balances, and Account Purposes/Restrictions)	We have no other sources of funding specifically, however, we do solicit textbook (and other course material) donations from instructors, departments, and divisions.

7.	Go through the DASB budget goals for the current academic year and explain how your program fits each of them or as many as possible. (250 words max) The DASB budget goals are available at www.deanza.edu/dasb/budget	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Goal 1. – By providing access to required and recommended textbooks and other course materials.</li> <li>• Goal 2. – While our collection benefits even students who only need the items briefly, our collection most benefits those students who cannot afford a text at all and those students who need to have print materials because of visual perception or other barriers to use of e-materials.</li> <li>• Goal 3. – We purchase materials which benefit students immediately after purchase and which then continue to benefit students for quarters or years thereafter.</li> <li>• Goal 4. – Community card holders cannot access the Reserves Collection.</li> <li>• Goal 5. – Our items have circulated on average 87 times over the lifetime of the item, starting with the higher, even as we have been extending circulation rules slowly with an eye to not impacting availability.</li> <li>• Goal 6. – This program does not generate revenue, although it provides an incentive for students to have their DASB cards.</li> <li>• Goal 7. – As noted above, Reserves items circulate many times per year and help many students over the items' lifespan.</li> <li>• Goal 8. – Providing access to course materials, especially early in the quarter, promotes student retention, as implied by the discussion section of "A multi-institutional study of the impact of open textbook adoption on the learning outcomes of post-secondary students" by Fischer, Hilton, Robinson, and Wiley in the Journal of Computing in Higher Education, December 2015 https://link.springer.com/article/10.1007/s12528-015-9101-x</li> <li>• Goal 9. – Please see answer to "Question/Inquiry 8." In field below.</li> </ul>
8.	Explain how your program is unique. Are there any programs on campus that are similar or is there any duplication of services? (250 words max)	The Academic Course Reserves Collection is the only collection of current course materials usable by all DASB Card holders. The Academic Course Reserves Collection contains materials which support students in nearly every discipline, and all instructional divisions.
9.	Explain how your program advertises and promotes itself to the general student population. Provide a clear plan for the current academic year as well as any marketing material you will or have used. (250 words max)	Our program contacts instructors/departments/divisions who then inform their students of the materials which directly benefit them in their courses.
10.	Explain how your program promotes equity on campus. (250 words max)	Our program, while potentially of benefit to all students, especially benefits students who cannot afford course materials, or who need print copies rather than digital because of visual or other barriers to accessing books through an electronic medium.
